

Dear Colleague,

On behalf of the Korean Society for Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition (KSPEN), we would like to invite you to the KSPEN 2021 international symposium which will be held as virtual congress on June 11 and 12, 2021.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, substantial uncertainties, unfortunately, remain on safety and feasibility of many activities and events world widely. The KSPEN 2021 organizing committee has decided to conduct the symposium as a virtual congress so that allows many of you across the globe can join the symposium safely. We believe that the KSPEN 2021 program offers a great opportunity for physicians, pharmacists, dietitians, scientists, nurses, and everyone in the field of nutrition and metabolism to explore cutting edge science, stimulate new collaborations and consolidate existing close partnerships.

We are looking forward to meeting you all in the KSPEN 2021.

Sincerely,

Jae Moon Bae, M.D., Ph.D.

Chairman, The Korean Society for Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition
